We are always searching for better ways to teach and research theology that (trans)forms not only our students, but also the communities we and they serve. We constantly journey to be an inclusive and sustainable faculty of theology, rooted in Africa, globally connected, and committed to justice, transformation, and excellence.

Students from a wide spectrum of communities, churches and countries join this faculty to better equip themselves for futures in fields like religious leadership, public theology, academia, youth work, community development, journalism. Come and be part of this hospitable, energetic, and creative space.
