

INFORMASIE TECHNOLOGIE

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

SKYPE USERS TARGETED BY RANSOMWARE

Skype users are being targeted by a round of ransomware that is being sent around as a message from contacts.

The message reads "lol is this your new profile pic?", which is followed by a link. If the Skype users clicks on the link, a zip file containing an executable that infects the computer system.

The system is the locked down and displays a message demanding money.

More about the Skype ransomware.

SOURCE: www.mybroadband.co.za

Posted in: Communication, Security | Tagged: Ransomware, Skype | With 0 comments