

Call for Bursary Applications 2025:

Chair in Urban Law and Sustainability Governance

- Stellenbosch University, Faculty of Law -

The Chair in Urban Law and Sustainability Governance invites expression of interest to join the Chair as a full-time Doctoral (LLD) or Masters (LLM) student in 2025.

Applicants are expected to clearly demonstrate interest to help advance the focus of the Chair's research on specific aspects of urban law and sustainability governance relevant in South Africa and other comparable legal jurisdictions.

Successful candidates will conduct their studies under the supervision of Prof Anél du Plessis. Postgraduate students in the Chair are residential students (Stellenbosch) and study full-time.

Note: the available bursaries only partially cover costs of study. Unfortunately, no full cost of study / wrap-around bursaries are available.

Minimum requirements:

For LLD studies: An average of 68% or above for the LLM dissertation / thesis. Published articles would be to the benefit of the applicant.

For LLM studies: An average of 68% or above for the 3rd and 4th year of LLB study.

Application process:

Submit the following documents by email to Ms Vuyiseka Klaas

(klaasv@sun.ac.za) by 5 September 2024:

- CV (with two academic references listed)
- Copy of ID
- Copy of full academic record
- For LLD: copy of completed / draft LLM dissertation
- For LLM: copy of a completed and authentic written assignment (eg for a LLB module)
- 2 page-memo sufficiently explaining interest in joining this specific Chair.

Shortlisted applicants may be invited for a virtual interview.

For more information on the Chair:

<https://blogs.sun.ac.za/law/chair-in-urban-law-and-sustainability-governance/>